

The Princeton Review Online

Exclusively for Amarillo ISD!

For students who simply prefer a self-directed preparation environment, The Princeton Review offers fully comprehensive online coursework. These dynamic programs combine interactive multimedia lessons with reinforcing exercises that students can access at their own paces, on their own schedules.

The Princeton Review's SAT or ACT Online Course

SAT or ACT Online is a 40-60 hour long course that students can complete in 3-7 weeks. This totally comprehensive course includes:

- 40-60 hours of highly interactive, self-paced online test prep lessons
- Full-length practice tests (4 for SAT and 2 for ACT) and online drills
- Complete review of all SAT or ACT subjects
- Access to SAT or ACT Essay LiveGradersm to get expert feedback on your essays

The SAT or ACT Online Course affords students 100 interactive lessons, full-length practice tests, subject-specific drills, as well as personalized feedback, homework assignments, and focused lessons that make The Princeton Review's SAT or ACT Online Program the best, most comprehensive self-preparation. Please see your Career Specialist in the Career Center for more information or to sign up.

